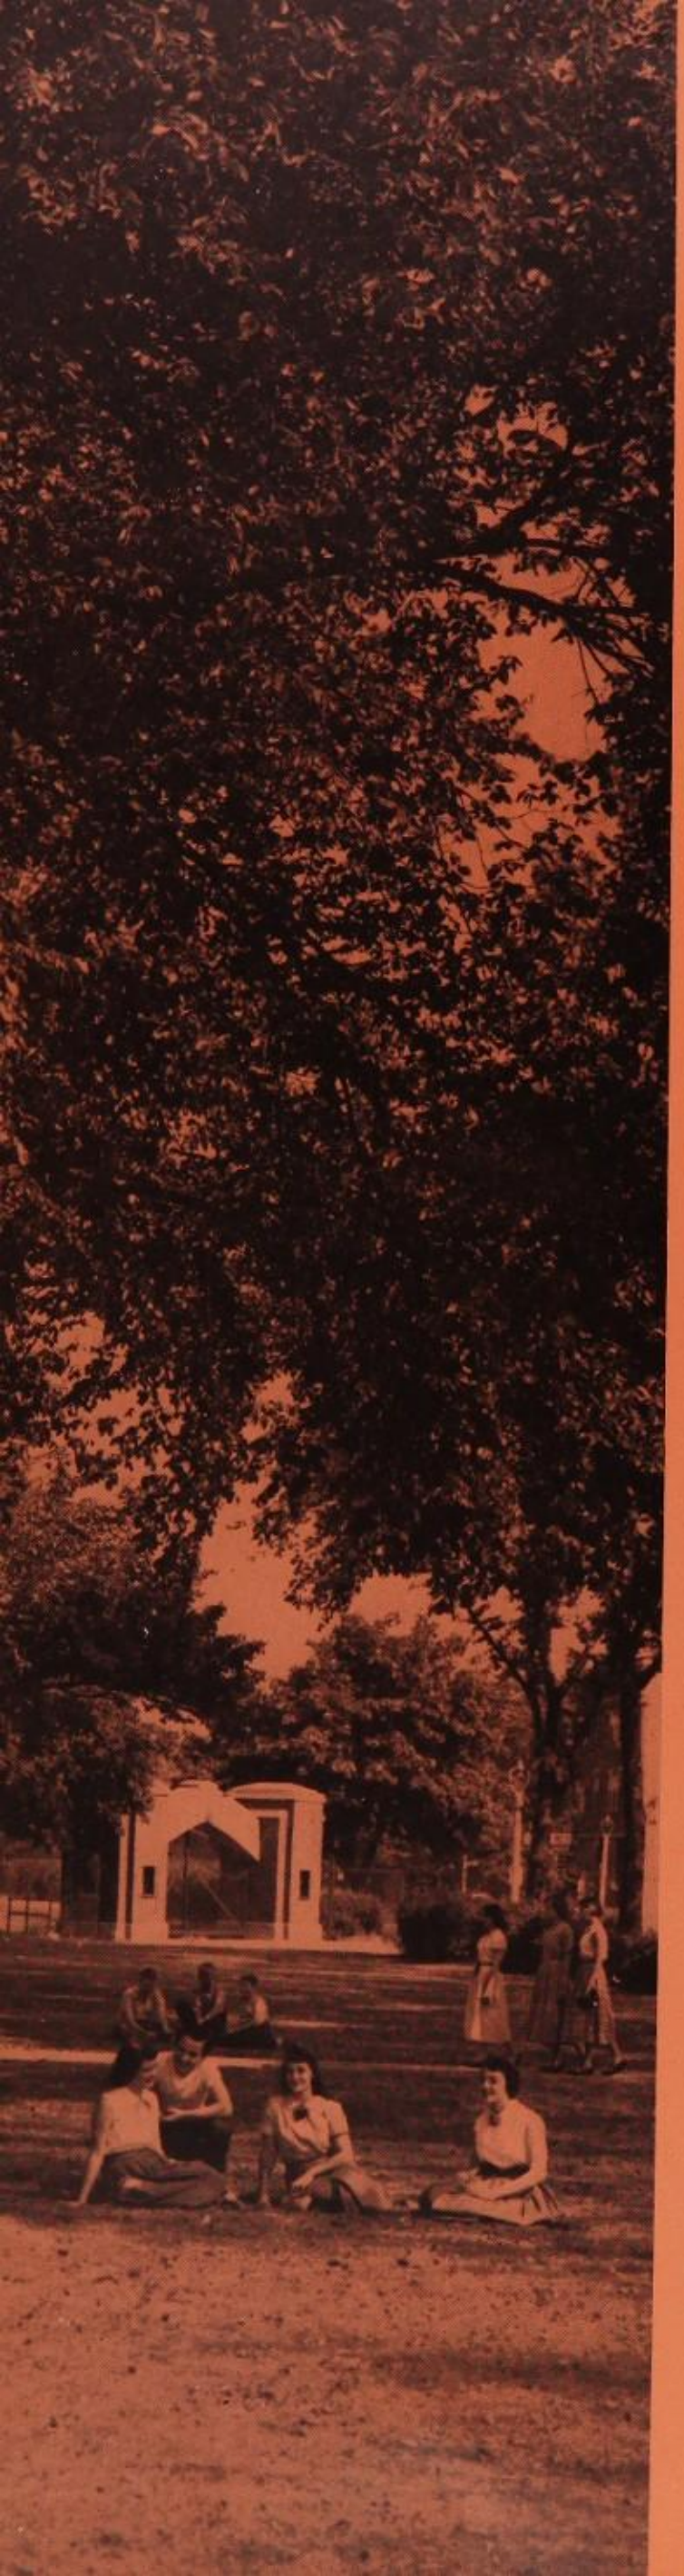
The Provi of 1953

Published by

THE SENIOR CLASS

PROVISO TOWNSHIP HIGH SCHOOL . . . . MAYWOOD, ILLINOIS



Foreword

Fragrant flowers, bubbling brooks, star-studded skies, fresh green grass—all have existed since the beginning of time, yet each is rediscovered every day by some individual. Throughout one's lifetime, education is the high adventure of discovery. Man's thirst for knowledge and his desire to create, led on by his insatiable curiosity, help him to solve the why, the where, and the what of his world.

Creative geniuses are continually answering these questions. Leonardo da Vinci represents the supreme example to all inventive minds, for he originated plans and designs so varied and so advanced that only in modern times have most of them been put into practical use.

Many problems are still plaguing inquisitive minds. They must be solved! This challenge to the students of Proviso is the theme of the 1953 Provi.

FIELD HOUSE

School

Stone age, iron age, machine age,

Atomic age—As the world advances,

So we strive to grasp the unknown.

We seek for knowledge,

And in this search we find

New paths of inquiry.

We destroy the restricting boundaries and barriers

Of time and distance, thus

Weaving a closer pattern of unity.

As we grow in power,

Let us also strive to grow in wisdom—

Representing the people of Proviso Township, the Board of Education devotes much time in service to Proviso.

Planning the budget, determining school policies, and improving the school property constitute the main duties of the seven members of the Board. With able guidance from Dr. Sifert on all educational matters, they handle the interests of Proviso efficiently.

SECRETARY TO THE SUPERINTENDENT

Personal secretary to the superintendent, Mrs. Frieda Zochert, schedules school activities and affairs sponsored by outside organizations using school facilities.

Dr. E. R. Sifert, Superintendent

Dr. Earl R. Sifert, the superintendent of Proviso, has given guidance and leadership to Proviso's faculty and student body for the past eighteen years. He is widely known for his participation in community, state, and national organizations. His knowledge of school functions and his administrative skill make him a competent director of the school.

SECRETARIES

While school is in session, the secretaries assist the counselors, department heads, and librarians; during the summer, they all work in the main office.

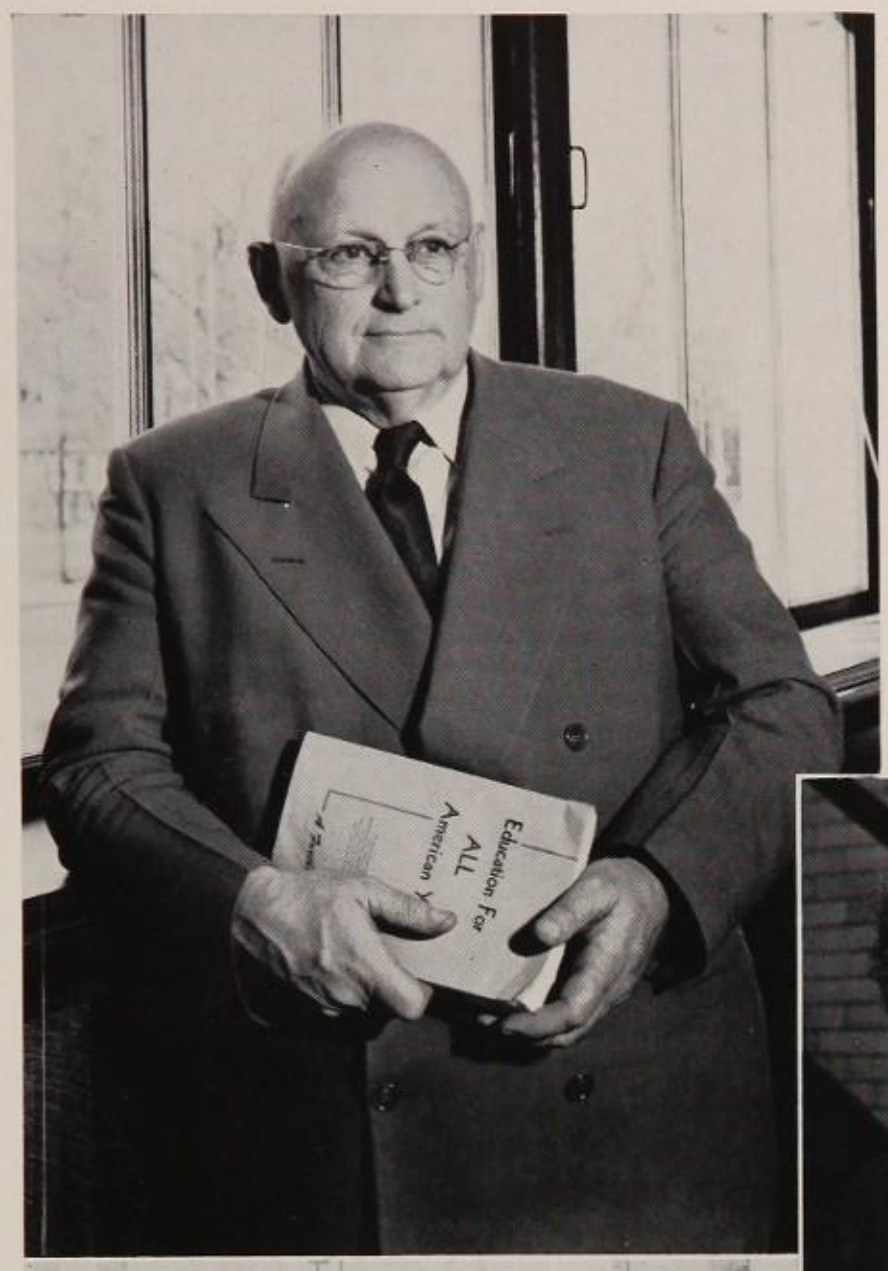
BUSINESS OFFICE

The Business Office prepares payrolls, banks organization money, purchases supplies, and handles student insurance. Mrs. Haupt, secretary to the Board of Education and Business Manager, directs the work. Her assistants are Miss Gertrude Bathje, Miss Leona Palka, and Mrs. Mae Holten.

BOOKROOM

Mrs. Emma Johnson, manager of the bookroom, handles all textbook records and distribution, and sells workbooks to students.

Administration . . . Guidance



ASSISTANT SUPERINTENDENT

In his thirty-four years at Proviso, Charles C. Taggart, assistant superintendent, has accumulated a storehouse of knowledge from which he is able to supply statistical information on any and all matters concerning Proviso. Mr. Taggart is responsible for the faculty schedules, student enrollment, and direction of the College Committee. His clear thinking and good judgment keeps Proviso running in an orderly and efficient manner.

REGISTRAR

Miss Mary Carroll, registrar and manager of the office, is in charge of all student records and transcripts. This year she was appointed editor of the National Educational Secretary, magazine of the National Association of Educational Secretaries.

COUNSELORS

SITTING: Miss Lois Moore, Miss Virginia Hayward. STANDING: Mr. O. O. Dillner, Mr. Arthur Vallicelli, Mr. J. W. Hinds, Miss Ruth Beck.

COUNSELORS

The six counselors assist students with their individual problems in private consultations, and with their group problems in counseling classes. They are responsible for keeping attendance records, contacting homes in case of absence, and issuing admittance slips. The upper-class counselors maintain job placement service for students. The freshman counselors are Miss Hayward and Mr. Vallicelli; sophomore, Miss Beck and Mr. Dillner; junior and senior, Miss Moore and Mr. Hinds.

Special Education Clinic . . . Health

Students scheduled for examinations wait in the spacious reception room.

C. A. E. MOORE
Director of Clinic

DR. IRWIN G. SPIESMAN
Medical Consultant

MISS D. CHERRINGTON
Director of Reading Clinic

MISS HELEN ROBINSON
Nurse

SPECIAL EDUCATION CLINIC

Speech and hearing tests for all freshmen and hearing tests for all juniors are administered annually under the direction of C. E. A. Moore. Mrs. Ottie Erickson, secretary, assists in testing. Once each week, Dr. Irwin G. Spiesman, eye, ear, nose and throat specialist, donates his services. The eight-week Summer Clinic has been an important factor in the decreasing number of serious cases treated by Mr. Moore. The clinic, equipped with the latest devices and instruments which are used for treatment without charge, is supported jointly by the state and the township. Miss Dorothy Cherrington aids students who have reading difficulties.

NURSE

Miss Helen Robinson, school nurse, gives emergency treatment to students in case of illness or accidents occurring on school property. She keeps health records and assists with eye and ear examinations, tuberculin tests, and health examinations.

Library...For Information and Pleasure

The library provides an atmosphere of busy accomplishment wherein a student needing fact for an assignment or fancy for his pleasure may find it. Supplementary material to aid him in the understanding of his many and varied interests are available to him in the large collection. Of special interest to the students are the varied exhibits hung in the library or displayed in the cases.

Speech and Literature

Man's desire to share his joys, his perplexities, and his accomplishments resulted in the development of language and literature. Appreciating and interpreting what has been written, and mastering the arts of writing and speaking are basic to happiness and success. New methods of communication have resulted in countless professional opportunities for those prepared to fill them.

Language and Social Studies

Through the study of man's behavior and his language we learn the fundamentals of world situations. As we investigate the lingual, governmental, and religious backgrounds of each nation, we attain an understanding of its culture and thus better equip ourselves for the role we have undertaken in international affairs.

Art and Music

When one learns to enjoy the arts, he acquires good taste and aesthetic judgment. A sensitivity to the work of artists is of inestimable value to the richness of life. By combining patterns of lines, forms, words, sounds, or movements, the artist can bring forth enchantment and beauty to those around him. The magnificence of a painting or the melodious voices of a choir bring about moods which inspire self-expression.

Mathematics And Science

Throughout the ages, man's curiosity has prompted exploration of the unfamiliar. As far back as the cave man, supersitions explaining natural phenomena existed. With the progression of time, man devised methods of solving problems and replaced his beliefs with proven principles. In this age of applied science, a familiarity with these principles is not only desirable but necessary.

Home Economics And Industrial Arts

The furthering of skills in the fields of home economics and industrial arts has multiplied the employment possibilities for students with specilized training and a practical knowledge of suitable materials. They learn to transform abstract ideas into concrete essentials of home and industry.

Physical Education

The strain of our strenuous scientific age makes a serious health program mandatory. The physical education department, through required classes and extracurricular sports, works toward this goal. Both group and individual competition increase the fitness of mind and body necessary for existence in this rapidly moving era.

The Commercial Department

Youth must be trained to become capable office workers and competent business leaders. Learning modern methods and working with up-to-date machines develop the skills necessary to keep in stride with the expansion of industry. The mastery of business procedures and the ability to cooperate in group activities are valuable assets also in the creation of harmonious and efficiently managed homes.

American Education Week

Poster reveals theme of American Education Week.

Interested parents view freshman evening classes.

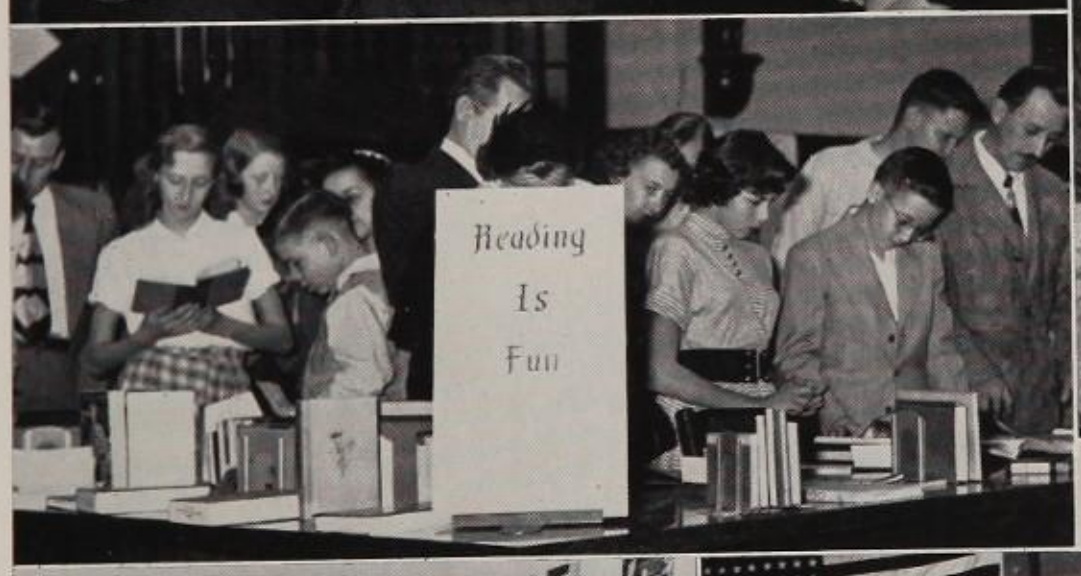
Faculty tea is attended by teachers of district.

Students and parents seem to agree that "Reading Is Fun."

Open house guests enjoy photographic display of school activities.

Freshman boys exhibit shop work for admiring parents.

Faculty greets guests at annual Articulation Tea.



The annual Articulation Tea in which the seventh and eighth grade teachers of Proviso met with the freshmen teachers, opened the week's activities on November 6. During this special week of November 9-15, Proviso students visited civic organizations, churches, women's clubs, and other citizens' groups and gave messages on education. Special exhibits appeared in the library and in Proviso's halls, and parents attended freshman open house on November 13. The week's activities were directed by Miss Mary West.

Cafeteria...Spot for Chow and Chatter

There's nothing that makes a good lunch taste better than lively conversation with good friends.

Mrs. Gladys Grenier, cafeteria manager.

The staff, under the direction of Mrs. Eleanor Johnson (seated, right), are responsible for the delectable dishes set before hungry Provisoites.

The most enjoyable break in the school day comes at lunch time when the students eat in the modern, efficient, sparkling cafeteria.

Capable and smiling workers prepare the tantalizing, nourishing meals for more than 3,500 students daily, during four half-hour lunch periods.

Mrs. Gladys Grenier, cafeteria manager, and Mrs. Hattie Haupt, school purchasing agent, handle the executive responsibilities. Mrs. Eleanor Johnson is supervisor of food preparation. The staff is often called upon to prepare and serve evening banquets for various organizations.

Maintenance Keeps Proviso Shipshape

A well-trained staff works the year around to maintain Proviso's six buildings and the twenty-three acres of grounds and athletic fields. Department gardners care for the lawns, the flower borders, and the Memorial Garden in the North Court; the electricians maintain the electrical equipment, operate the stage lighting unit, and regulate clocks; William Blado, chief engineer, and his assistants operate the heating plant. Three uniformed matrons help in the girls' physical education department, and care for the girls' washrooms.

Raymond C. Quandt, superintendent of buildings and grounds.

Gus, the school's chauffeur, is always going or coming on important errands.

Jay Betz, receiving room clerk, and William Henriksen, assistant superintendent of buildings and grounds, confer.

Duties abound for Proviso's cheerful matrons.

Towels and athletic apparel are washed in the modern laundry.

The newly acquired road marker gets a cordial welcome by the men who will use it.

The night crew are given instructions by their foreman, Vito Pacioni.

Classes

Seniors, juniors, sophomores, freshmen—

All are working for a common purpose.

Guided by proficient leaders,

Encouraged to show initiative in work and play,

Equipped to become vigilant citizens,

We learn to take responsibilities

And to express our convictions.

We become capable leaders or dependable followers;

We increase our capacity to serve.

As we grow in power,

Let us also strive to grow in wisdom—

Seniors Pursue Varied Activities

Some top-flight instrumentalists hold a jam session.
A study in concentration on a very special subject.
Devotees of modern dance co-ordinate grace and rhythm.
A neat trick—encouraging a feeble flame with smiles.
Future homemakers learn modern home nursing methods.
Enthusiastic tennis players descending the staircase.
Social amenities are observed at the Guard formal.
Make it snappy, kids! The party starts at eight-thirty.

'53 Leaders Plan Class Affairs

The class of 1953! How thrilled we were as we heard those words and saw the curtain rise in September on the last act of our drama at Proviso. The year sped by all too fast, and although we had yet to struggle through term papers and final exams, we knew that soon all the cramming and sleepless nights would be over. With almost four years of good basic education behind us, we appreciate the skill and patience of the teachers who directed us.

How we remember the social activities: the mixers, "Tinsel n' Twilight" and "Midnight Masquerade"; the class play, Jane Eyre; and the thrilling climax, the prom—"Coronation Ball."

Yes, these were wonderful times and we shall always remember them.

Never Fail!

As I sat in contemplation
Thinking of our world-wide fears,
I could see life's broadening pathways
Pass through time to future years.

There I saw advancing firmly
Eager youths both frail and strong,
Hastening forward to the highway
With expectant heart and song.

Many had engaged in struggle,
Oft in sorrow, oft in pain,
That had won for them the privilege
To begin to strive again.

Then I saw what lay behind them
Was the training field for life,
And the way that lay before them
Was the battle field of strife.

They were armed with truth and knowledge,
Fortified with trust and right:
Every lesson learned with patience
Had prepared them for the fight.

Well I knew that in life's contest
Only they can still prevail
Who are marching ever forward
With the motto — NEVER FAIL!

In September we returned to Proviso eager to resume our work as upper classmen. The Junior Council and the class officers immediately began planning our fall party, and talent assembly. The year's social calendar included the junior-senior mixers, "Tinsel and Twilight" and "Midnight Masquerade." In May we concluded our activities with the beautiful spring prom, "The Coronation Ball."

Although the year was filled with social events, we proved ourselves worthy scholars. Twelve juniors received silver medals as rewards for their scholastic ability.

With our senior year in view we look forward to the experiences and prestige which will accompany our climaxing year at Proviso.

Sophomores Map Active Year

No longer novices in our roles at Proviso, we eagerly took our places as proud sophomores. We no longer felt lost, for we were now an established part of the school. We joined clubs and participated in after school activities.

The spring and autumn dances offered a gala time for all. With our talented classmates offering the entertainment, the parties were huge successes.

Twenty-six members were bronze medal winners. We congratulate them and hope they will all be silver and gold medal winners.

As the second act terminated, we knew that the third act would be, without a doubt, the best presented at Proviso.

Plan Work and Play for Class

How well we remember September 3, our debut at Proviso. With our Blue Books clutched tightly in our hands, we walked timidly down Proviso's massive halls of learning. With the guidance of the Big Sisters of the Senior Guard and Big Brothers of the Senior Hi-Y, we proceeded to find our classes. After a week of excitement and investigation, we became accustomed to our roles in the four act play.

We soon realized that we would have to decide who would take star billing from our large cast of 969. On November 4 we cast our ballots for the leads. Joseph Toman took honors as president; Ronald Bearwald, as vice-president; Judith Heinke, as secretary; and Judith Warren, as treasurer.

As our play continued and intermission grew near, we happily anticipated our roles in the second act as sophomores.

Activities

Student Council, PYF, Girls' League,

Hi-Y—Each of Proviso's many organizations

Develops individual interests.

As we learn to cooperate through planning,

Participation, and directing,

So we grow in self-confidence

And character . . .

We create a happy atmosphere and together

Experience the results of united effort.

As we grow in power,

Let us also strive to grow in wisdom—

QUALIFICATIONS FOR MEMBERSHIP

Those seniors who rank scholastically in the highest three per cent of the class are automatically elected to the National Honor Society. Only those seniors are eligible for election who rank in the upper third of the class and who have spent at least one year at Proviso. A sufficient number are chosen to bring the total membership up to twelve per cent of the seniors. To be one of the fortunate five per cent of all juniors who achieve membership in NHS, a student must rank in the top fifteen per cent of his class.

Assembly Supervisors . . . Co-ops

CO-OPS . . . AN EXPERIMENT

In 1947 an idea became a deed. It was then that Proviso introduced the pioneer Co-op Study Hall System. In the five intervening years the system has grown steadily but carefully. At present over one thousand students are members of the sixty odd study halls which convene daily. Co-op has always served as a proving ground for new ideas. This year's organization has moved forward with such improvements as better election procedures, membership to freshmen, assisting development of Co-ops at other schools, and a dance for all the chairmen.

Character In School And Community

Since its founding in 1919, the Hi-Y of Proviso has grown steadily in size and stature. Today there are five chapters, each contributing its part to the development of Christian youth. The first chapter was under the supervision of the Oak Park Y.M.C.A. Leadership has become increasingly local, with the "Y" acting only in an advisory capacity. The Hi-Y, which is essentially a service club, has benefited from the establishment in 1940 of a council consisting of two representatives from each club. This governing body introduces and supports the service projects.

Offers Recreational Pastime

Striving to develop athletic interest in Proviso girls, the G.A.A. offers varied activities in an after-school program. Headed by Miss Eva Eddy and her staff, the group offers thirteen intramural sports, three of which are also featured interscholastically. In addition, the G.A.A. sponsors several interclass tournaments. By earning four points at a time, a girl may accumulate enough points to receive awards given after the 600-point, 1200-point, 1600-point, or 2000-point mark. The organization also holds a number of social activities for its members.

The senior class and members of the Provi staff are proud to present to Proviso, the 37th edition of the Provi. Behind the 160 pages of this, your annual, stand the creative ability and continued persistence of forty staff members and their supervisors. In the process of making this book, those who served have been rewarded for countless hours of labor by the valuable experience gained in the art of book-making. Perhaps of even deeper satisfaction is the increased knowledge acquired of our school and its workings. The students and advisors worked through the editorial, art, business, and photographic divisions to produce a book worthy of Proviso and the students it represents.

Chronicle of News and Views

Striving to produce award-winning papers, Pageant workers put in a busy season. From the time the staff of this publication begins its plans on Wednesday morning until the paper is completed the following Tuesday night, many laborers spend long hours pursuing news matters. When the first stories have been turned in, they are copyread and corrected by capable editors and their assistants. After the first journey to the printers, the pages begin to take shape. Page layouts and proofreading constitute the remaining jobs. A final check is made and the paper is sent to press; the Pageant staff breathes a sigh of relief.

Performing in concerts and singing Christmas carols at local orphanages and homes for the aged, the Proviso choral groups, directed by Robert A. Davis, have delighted many Proviso area audiences with inspiring melodies.

The featured Christmas presentation of the choir this year was Fred Waring's arrangement of "The Song of Christmas." In February, the choir and Mrs. Marilyn Stevens' dance group rendered a choric dance version of Jerome Kern's "Showboat" against a backdrop created by art students of Miss Wilhelmina Marm. In March, the choir journeyed to the Palmer House for a special performance at the convention of the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

Varsity Pirates Fight

DAVENPORT

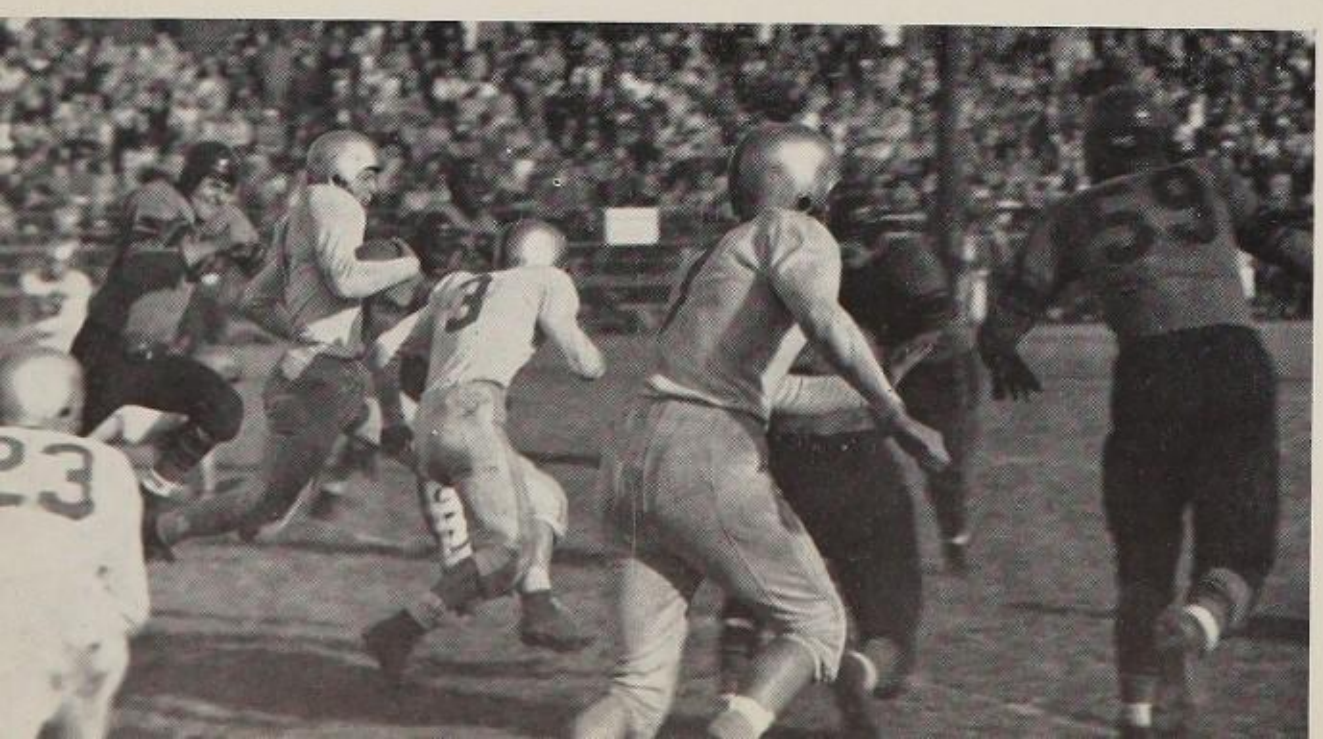
The Bucs christened the '52 season by conquering Davenport 19-0 for the second consecutive year. The Pirates scored twice in the first and once in the third quarter due to effective offensive plays. Bob Rumpf scored in the first period, and Tim Byrne in the first and third. Alert defense on the part of the linemen showed the Bucs' overpowering strength.

WAUKEGAN

In their first Suburban League game, Proviso continued strong to conquer the Bulldogs from Waukegan 13-7. The Bulldogs scored early in the first quarter, and held the lead until the Bucs tied it up in the second quarter on a run by Bob Rumpf, with Gordy Young hitting the extra point. The fourth quarter went scoreless in a battle of the defenses.

NILES

Returning home for Proviso's first night game, the Bucs annihilated the Trojans 34-0. The Pirates tallied in every quarter to prove their superiority. Tom Zimanzl, Joe Rempert, Bob Rumpf, and Tim Byrne racked up the touchdown points, with Gordy Young kicking the extra points.



EVANSTON

Evanston took some of the light out of Proviso's Homecoming by trampling the Pirates 34-13 for their first defeat. The Wildkits dominated play in the first half. They smashed the Buc's line mainly through the running of Milt Gibbs, and scored 21 points. The Pirates scored 13 points in the second half, but Evanston retained the lead by scoring an equal number of tallies.

Through Rough Season

NEW TRIER

Proviso traveled to New Trier and added to the satisfaction of the Indians' homecoming by falling 21-12. The Bucs drew first blood, but the Indians soon took the lead which they kept for the rest of the contest. Tim Byrne's aerials to Pete Fiorito and Bill Bondlow contributed the biggest gains in the Pirates' touchdown drives.

MORTON

In their second daylight home game, the Bucs rallied after losing to New Trier the previous week. With Joe Aceto and Bob Rumpf doing the scoring, Proviso tasted victory to the tune of 18-0. The linemen held the spotlight recovering fumbles and holding Morton scoreless.

HIGHLAND PARK

Next in the Pirates' pigskin grind came Highland Park, who edged the Bucs out 7-6 for their third defeat. The Little Giants hit pay-dirt in the opening minutes of the first quarter. The Bucs came back in the second quarter with a tally, but missed the extra point. The second half saw no scoring, as it was a battle of defenses.

OAK PARK

Proviso succumbed to its old rival 26-6 to close the season with a four and four record. The Bucs began a sustained drive after the opening kickoff, which faded with a score in sight. Oak Park dominated the play, the lone Proviso highlight coming when Don Coglianese, guard, intercepted a Huskie pass to tally the only Proviso touchdown.

With Coach Rattenbury at the helm, the JV pirate crew steered its course to four wins, one tie, and two defeats. The Pirates blanked Schurz and Waukegan in their first engagements, and sailed on through Bloom and Evanston. They were overhauled by New Trier, and after a draw at Morton, they were sunk by Oak Park.

Sophs Prove Scoring Ability

In a rugged eight-game schedule, the sophs were victorious in five of the matches. The Bucs held four of their opponents scoreless, but were tied by a fighting Morton squad. Judging from their ability and enthusiasm this season, the outlook for next year's varsity is bright.

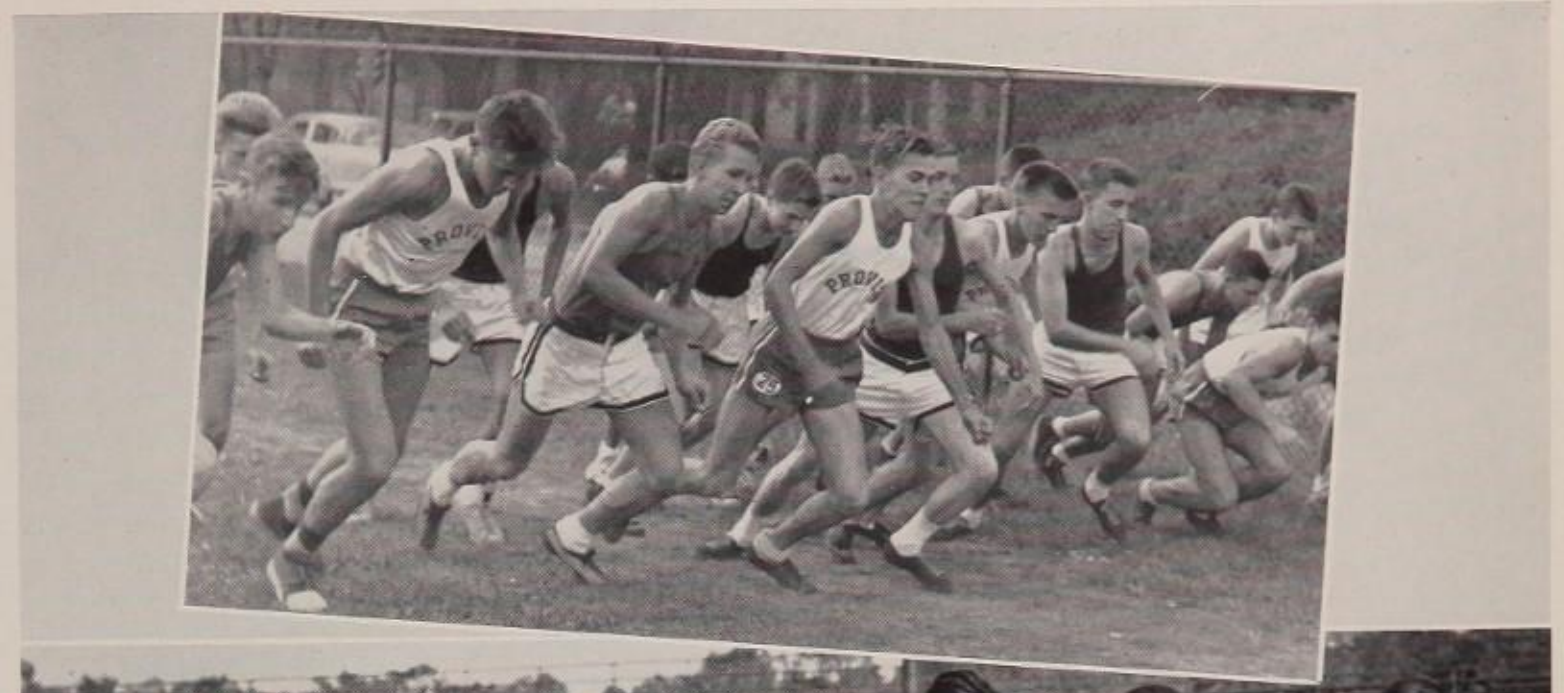
Baby Bucs Have Successful Season

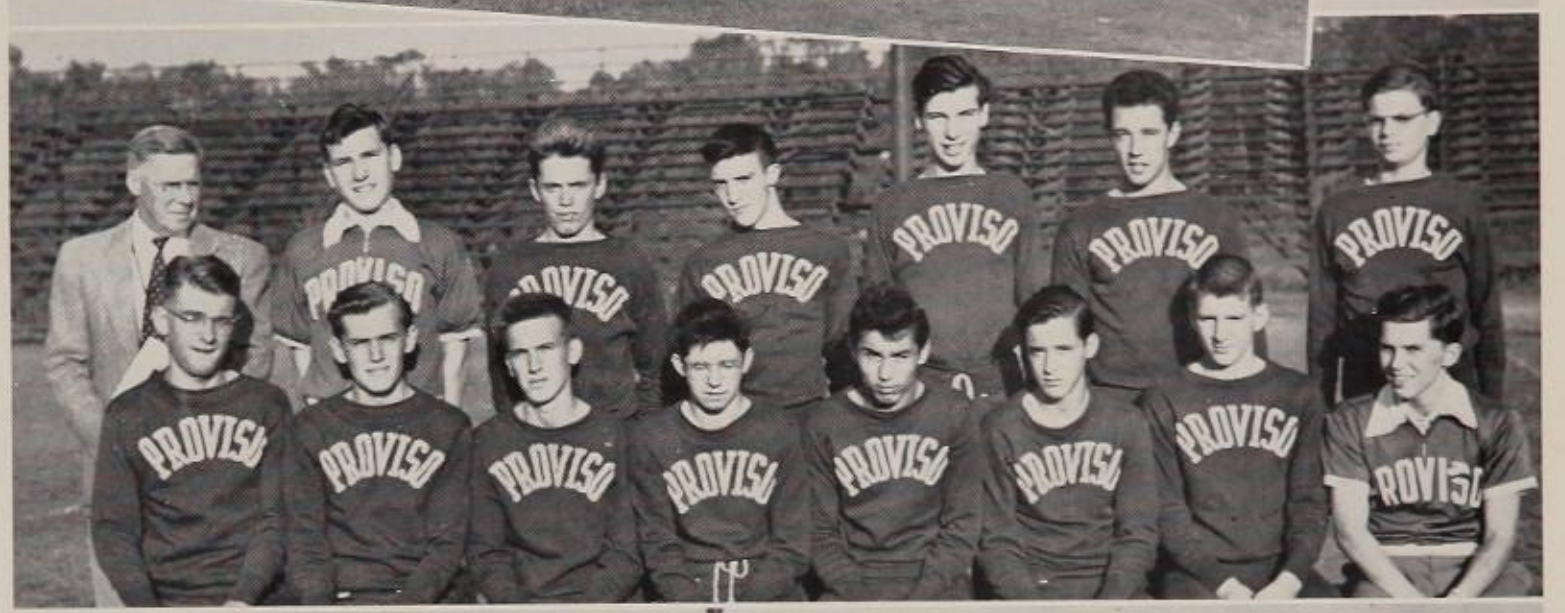
In a see-saw season the Freshmen won five games and lost only three, two by a one-point margin. The boys were trained by Coaches Bryan, Storby, and Griep.

The Baby Bucs whipped Blue Island 12-6 in the opener, but were tripped up by Waukegan 13-12 the following Saturday. Gathering momentum, the Frosh machine trampled Bloom 24-0 and skimmed by Evanston 7-6. Trouble then beseiged the team as they were defeated by New Trier 28-6. The Morton game was canceled. Hard luck followed the yearlings as they were toppled by Highland Park 14-13, but they finished in grand style, smashing Oak Park 7-0.

Crosscountry...Speed Plus Endurance



They're off! Just two more miles to go. It looks like a winner for Proviso in the pre-season battle with Oak Park.



VARSITY

FROSH-SOPH

VARSITY

The varsity cross country team raced through the season winning four of the seven meets. Proviso's only league loss was to the champion Evanston squad. The harriers dealt defeat to Morton and New Trier, and whipped the Oak Park Huskies twice, but succumbed to the overwhelming power of LaGrange and Bloom. The thinclads closed the season by capturing second place in the Suburban League Meet and third place in the District Meet.

FRESH-SOPH

The fresh-soph cindermen victoriously finished the season by winning the coveted Suburban League Championship. Individual honors went to Henry Vincent, '55, who took the first place crown. The team overcame Oak Park, Morton, Bloom, and Evanston, suffering their only loss to LaGrange. In spite of numerous injuries, the Sophs had power and depth in rank which gives hope for a strong varsity next year.

Varsity Squad Picks Up Speed

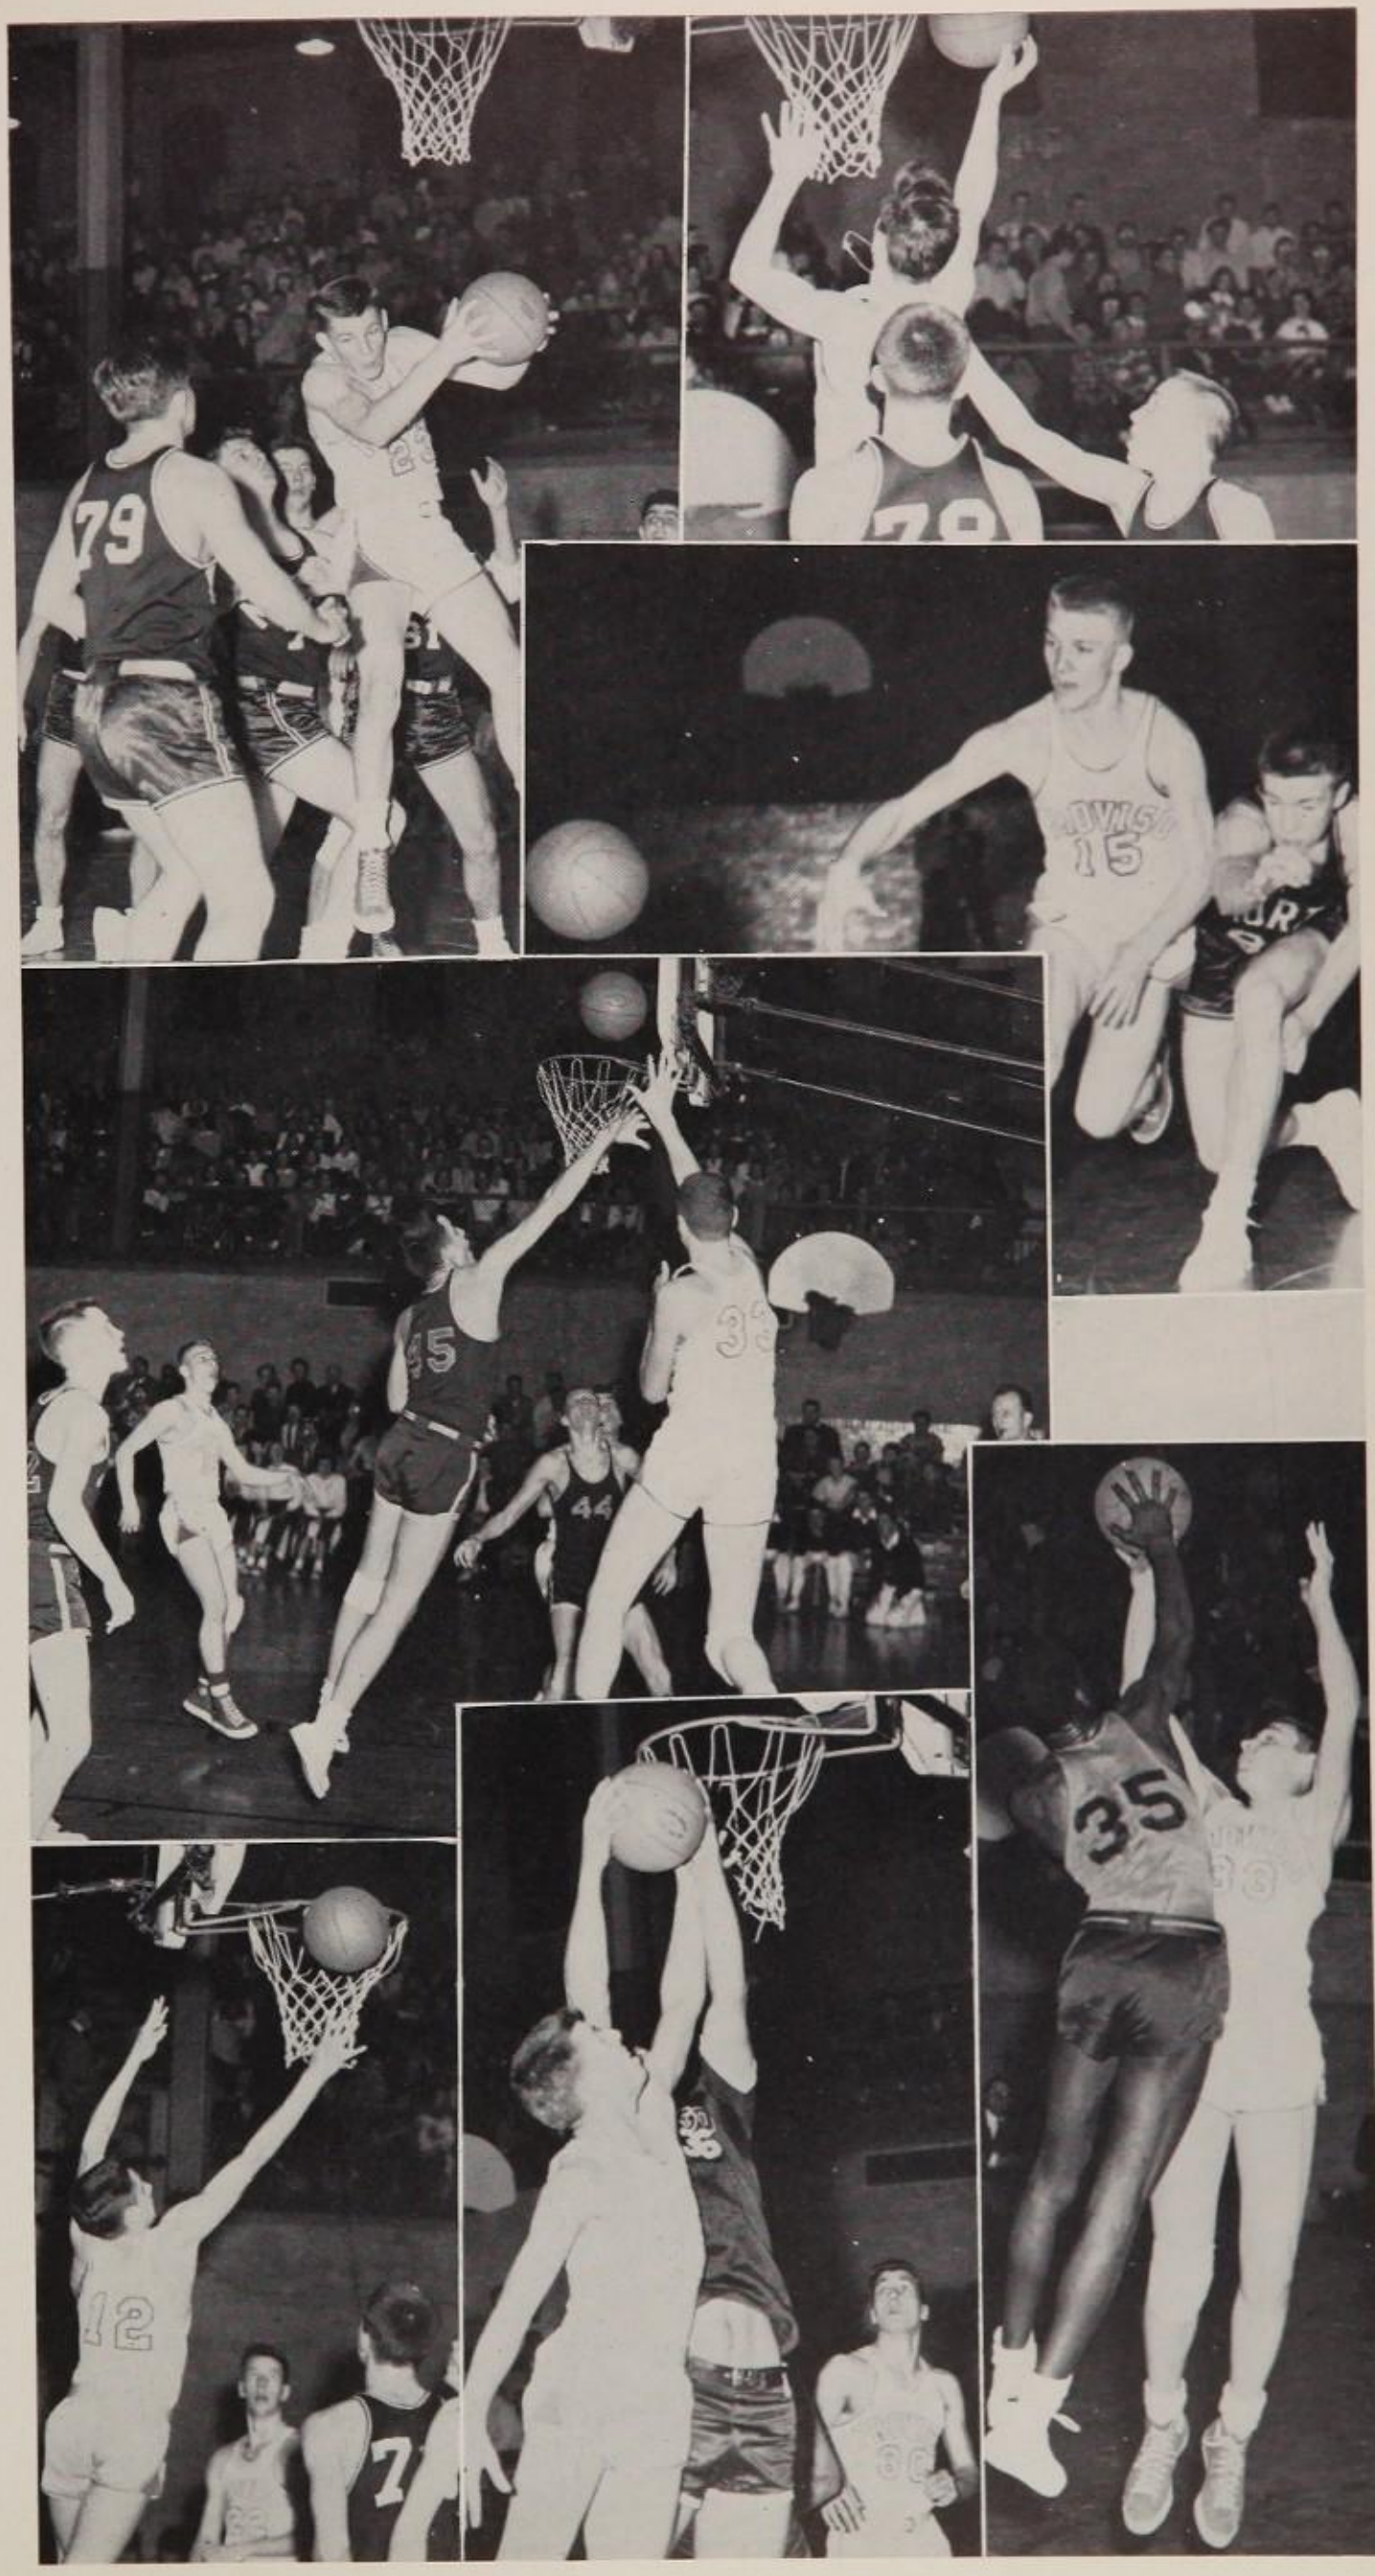
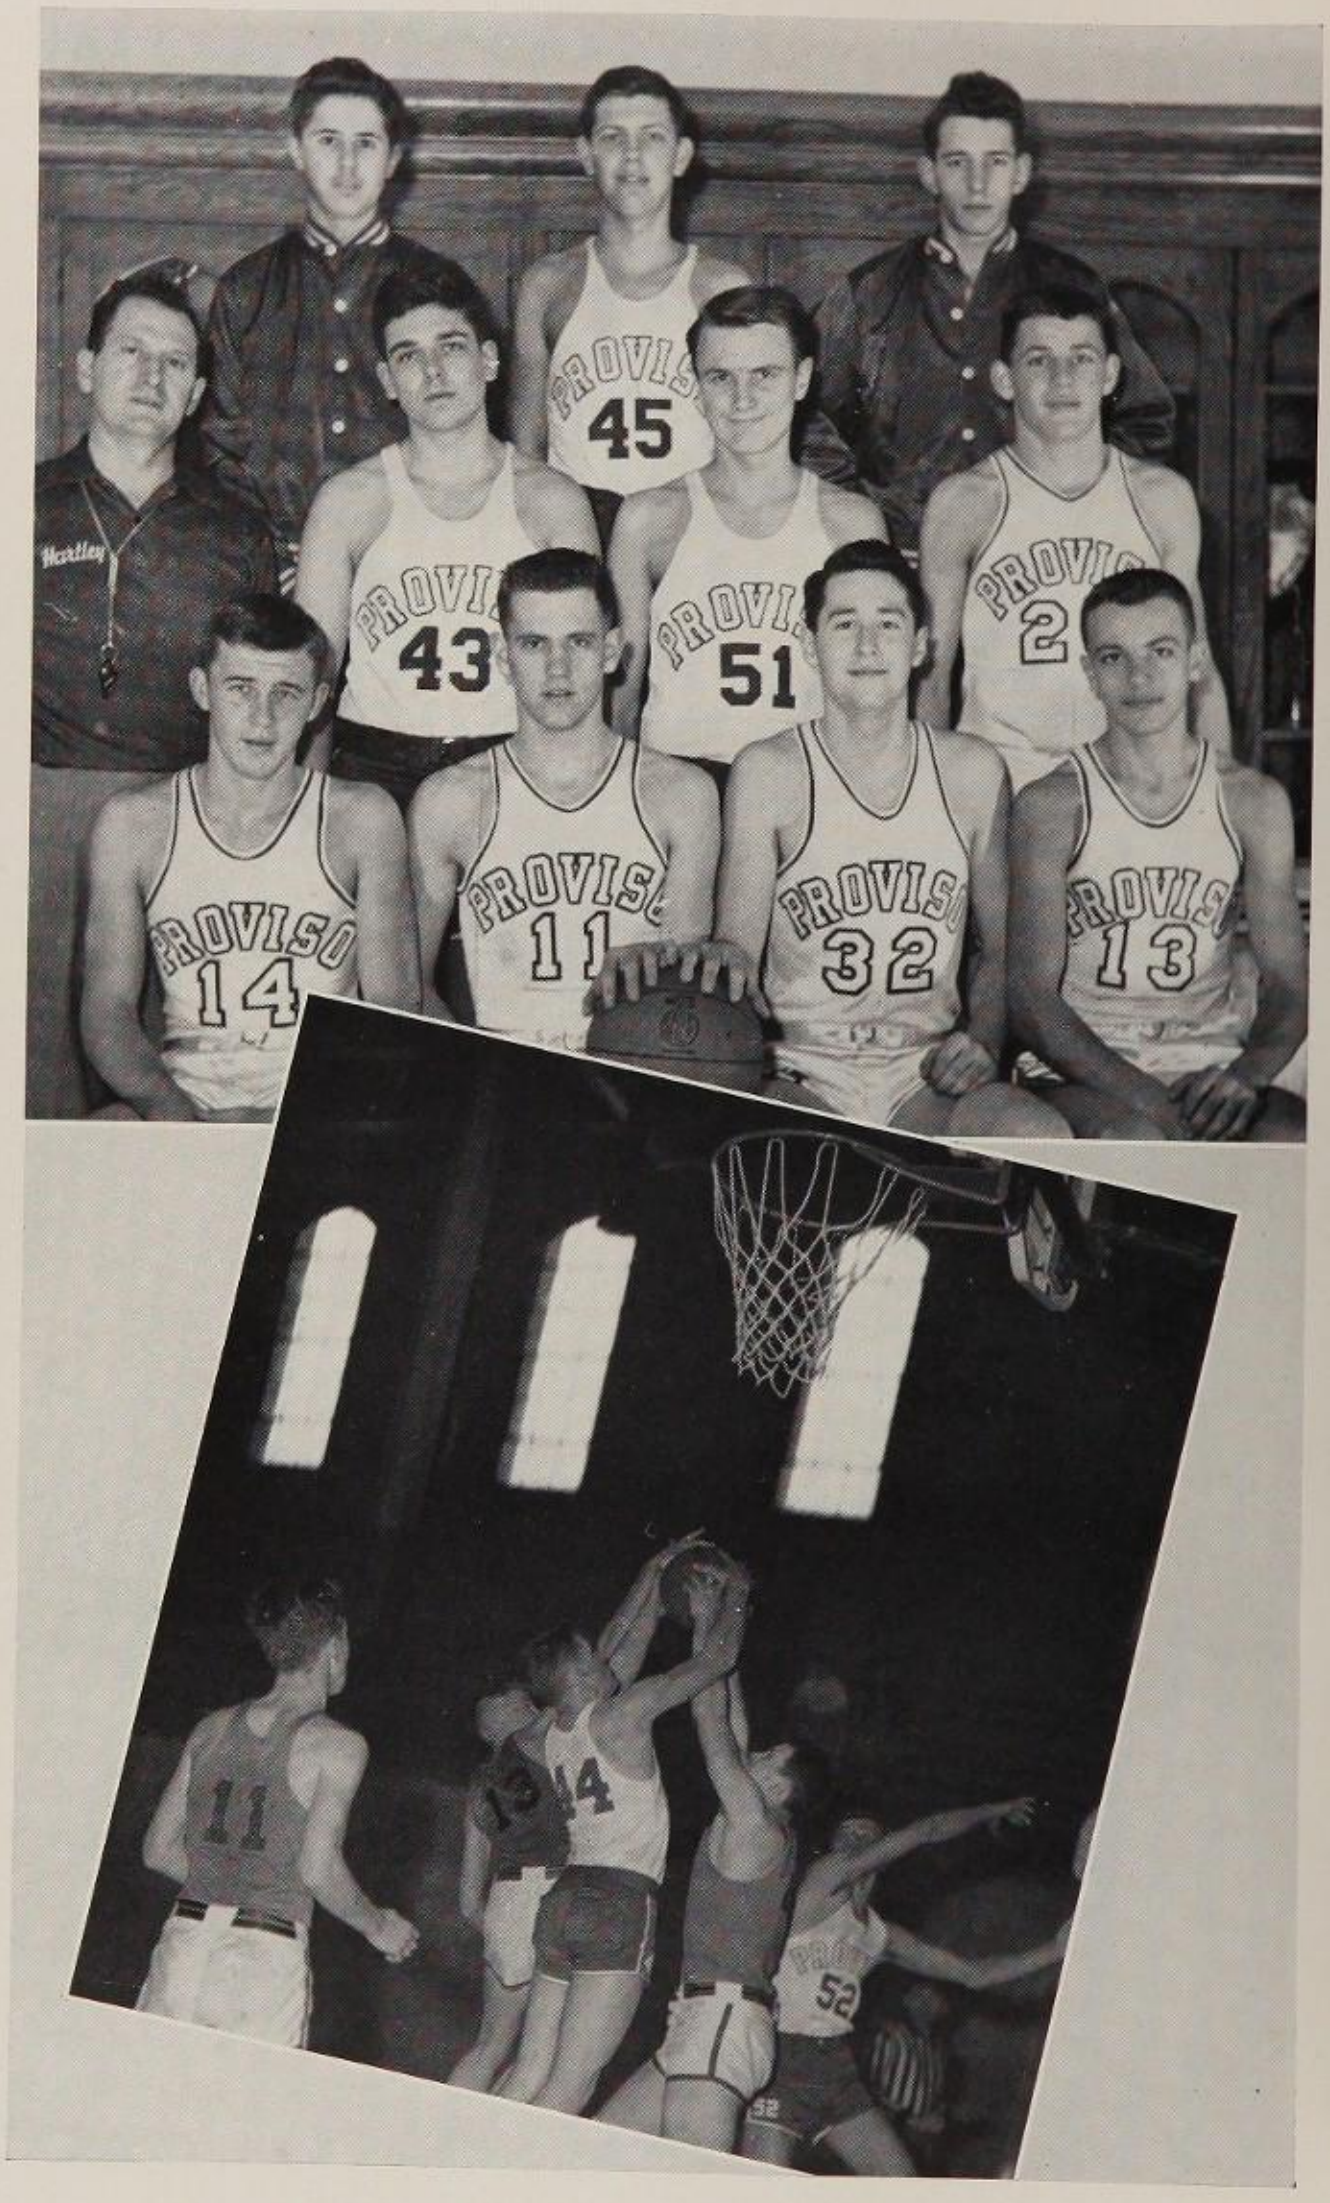
The Pirates started with an outlook of a highly unvictorious season. Six conference games and the initial game of the Christmas tournament passed without a win. Then something seemed to wake the boys up and they won six of the remaining twelve games. The fact that many of their losses were by only one or two points showed the powerhouse Proviso had. Prior to the Regional, Proviso won three games, and looked like an upset in the scheme of things, with a good chance of beating the favored Oak Park. The boys were tense, and lost to Oak Park in the first game of the Regional. The season ended with a 6 and 13 record.

Camera Catches Cagers In Action



Jay Vees Balance Wins, Losses



FRONT ROW: Strzala, Shepherd, Garvin, Dubek. MIDDLE ROW: Coach Hartley, Beatty, Hall, Nitschke. BACK ROW: Blickhahn, manager; Oppenborn, Strong, manager.

The JV's had a good season, winning seven and losing seven. With a wealth of talent, the team didn't click consistently, but showed spark in several games, such as their first tilt with the Junior Varsity of the state champion La Grange team in which they won 61-42. They did succeed in accomplishing something definitely of importance: defeating Oak Park twice by more than ten points.

Fresh-Soph Basketeers

FRESHMAN

SOPHOMORE

In a season of low-scoring games, the sophs didn't seem to be capable of swishing the hoops. In the games which they did win, they remedied this situation, scoring over forty markers. Their overall record for the season was seven wins and ten losses, for a .412 percentage.

FRESHMAN

The freshman team, showing powerful prospects, won 16 and lost 2 games. In spite of losing by 5 points to New Trier and by 1 point to Morton, the Baby Bucs scored on the average 14 more points per game than did their opponents. Under John Tiefenthal, the boys marched through the season like veterans; they showed promise of a winning soph squad next year.

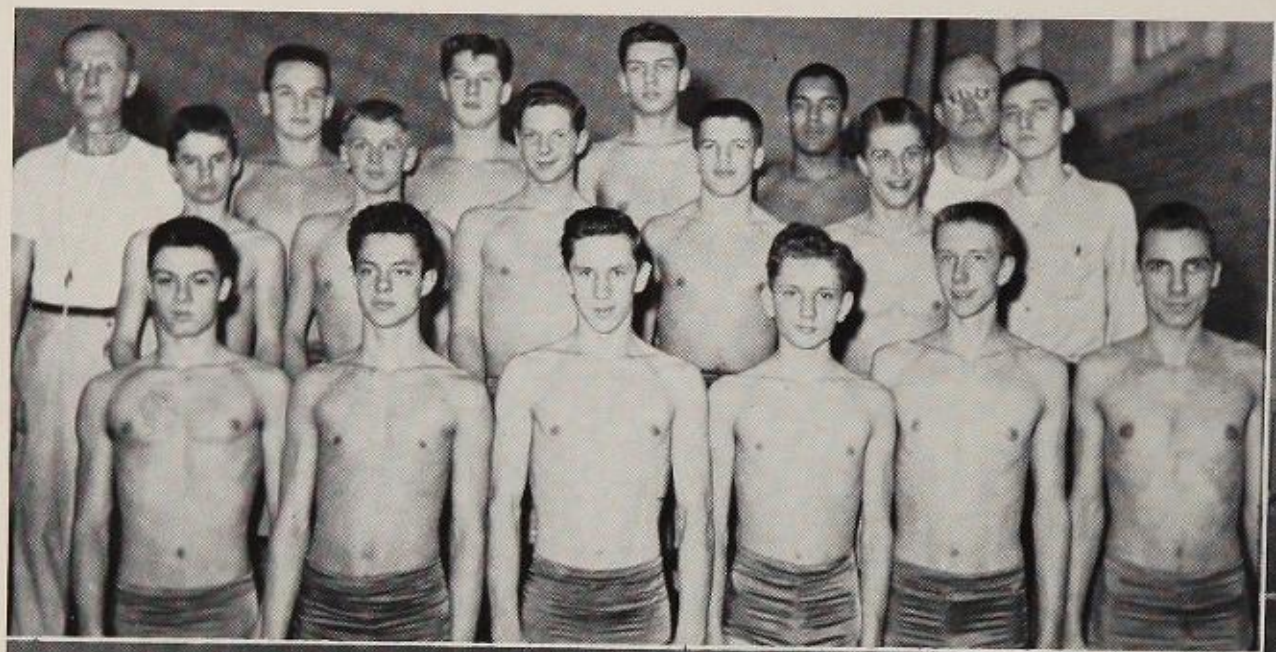
Mermen Exhibit Undaunted Spirit

VARSITY

Proviso's mermen were a constant threat to all opponents. The team, under Coach Hagen's supervision, splashed up four wins but drowned in the other five meets. The real teamwork came as the season was ending. By churning the waters they won the last three contests in succession. Since half of Mr. Hagen's swimmers will return next year, the varsity will be as strong as or stronger than this year's squad.

FRESH-SOPH

The Fresh-Soph tankmen dove into a season of rough competition. They lost their first six meets, but came back to win their last two. With Coach Hagen's help, the boys never gave up; they cut the opponents' lead in each succeeding meet until they could capture the points to score two Proviso wins.



VARSITY

The Pirate matmen, under the able guidance of Coach Slimmer, finished the season with a record of 6 wins and 6 losses. Thornton defeated Proviso to open the mat season, but Proviso recovered from this early shock by trouncing their next three opponents.

The boys regained their prestige as they won their fourteenth straight sectional title, qualifying seven grapplers for the state meet.

George Kelly, the bulwark of the Buc squad, remained undefeated throughout the year and closed his brilliant season by copping first place in the state meet.

FRESH-SOPH

Winning 7 out of their 9 meets, the fresh-soph, under the direction of Coach Kassel, showed excellent prospects for next year's varsity.

Bucs Challenge Foes on Diamond

In a battle with the weather as well as with their opponents, the baseball squad has managed a 3-3 record as the Provi goes to bed. With warmer weather approaching the boys have their eye on a better berth than they now hold. The team's nucleus, all Appleton trained, are the returning lettermen and the boys who played American Legion ball last summer.

The Fresh-Soph squad has fine prospects for a season of which the athletic department will be proud. These boys will be battling the present juniors for positions on the 1954 varsity baseball squad.

Lifeguards Protect Swimmers

Proviso lifeguards are responsible for the safety of the swimmers during classes in the pool. In order to qualify they must have completed satisfactorily the course in lifesaving under the direction of George Hagen. Although the lifesavers are trained primarily to serve the school, they are also equipped for summer employment at local pools.

GOLF

From a turnout of nearly forty boys, twelve boys remain on the team from which a five-man squad is chosen for each match. Wally Munson, who held the number three position last year is Proviso's mainstay. In a practice meet with Leyden the linksters were victorious, 9-6, but they have little hope for unseating Highland Park, last year's state champions.

TENNIS

Although the tennis squad has three returning lettermen, the prospects for the season are not too optimistic. Because the initial turnout was sparse, the team lacks depth. As the Provi goes to press, the boys have chalked up a 2 and 3 record, largely because of the efforts of Don Cohan, John Guess, and Dick Thiele.

As the indoor season moved by, the varsity appeared to have only an average squad. Victories came against Austin, Schurz, Maine, and Morton; but the thinclads bowed to the powerful Evanston, Oak Park, Phillips, and New Trier teams. Melvin Stokes in the high jump and Dick Barrett in the mile run were consistent winners.

The soph cindermen had one of their best forces this year. The boys flashed in all of their matches, losing only to Oak Park. As the Provi retires, they show great promise as a continued winner for the rest of the season and as a varsity next year.

Look Ahead

We are standing in a great dawn,
One that others could not know,
At a height they only dreamed of
As they toiled far below.

We are seeking for the summit
Of a mountain, cloud encurled,
Soaring upward to the heavens
From foundations of the world.

We are climbing up rough foothills,
Moving slowly o'er each stone;
We are reaching for high goals
Others never could have known.

We are slipping, sliding, falling,
Going upward, even still
With a grim determination
To surmount that distant hill.

To insure our upward journey,
Charted by our fathers' tread,
With our sights upon the future,
We, the youth, must look ahead.
